Message from the President

A great big thanks to Anita VanRoekel for a job well done. She had served as the editor of The Pimmit Hills Dispatch for the past seven years. She is turning over the reins of the Dispatch to a new editor as she and her husband Danny VanRoekel, our treasurer, make retirement plans. Anita, you made my term as President of the Pimmit Hills Citizens Association a lot easier. Thank you again!

Halloween is approaching very soon. Everyone please watch out for the little ghosts and goblins as they haunt Pimmit Hills going door to door looking for treats from its citizens. Please drive carefully on trick-or-treat night.

Keith Allison

Positive changes are happening everywhere in Pimmit Hills! Property values of Pimmit Hills homes keep rising. Residents are staying here and renovating or putting on major additions. You can also see your neighbors out working on the landscape of their yards. New couples, singles and families with children are moving in and helping to bring about these positive changes alongside the residents who have made Pimmit Hills their home for nearly 50 years.

Here's a chance for you to get involved with our great community whether you are a new or long-time resident. Check off those items below where you are interested in participating or helping out with your talents and abilities.☞

- I'm interested in attending the PHCA meetings the first Tuesday of every month to learn more about my community, raise concerns and find out how I can help.
  - I need a ride to the meetings.
  - I can volunteer to drive people to the meetings.
- I'm interested in being an officer of PHCA to help bring positive influences to our neighborhood. New officers needed include:
  - President
  - First Vice President
  - Second Vice President
  - Treasurer
  - Secretary
  - Three Year Director
- I'd like to help deliver The Dispatch to homes in my area. (Get some exercise, look at houses and meet neighbors!)
- I am interested in participating in the Neighborhood Watch. (A new leader is also needed)
- I'm an at-home mother who would like to join the Moms Club in Pimmit Hills.
- I am interested in starting a welcome committee for new people moving into the Pimmit Hills neighborhood.
- I want to place a classified ad or a display ad (design is free!) in The Dispatch.
- I'd like to write an article for The Dispatch or I'd like to contribute some news for The Dispatch. (All articles must be signed; anonymous articles can't be published.)
- I'd like to suggest another opportunity to help our community that is not mentioned here. (We need your creative ideas!)

Did You Know?

BY JENNIFER BAKER, PHCA SECRETARY

Unless there are some volunteers from the Community, the PHCA could be without officers next year. The current slate of officers have all been serving for terms of three to seven years and would like to "pass the baton" of leadership. Please don't assume that someone else will step forward. The responsibilities of the offices are not overwhelming and can be coordinated with the demands of almost any schedule. Contact any of the current officers for more information.

Since the renovations have begun at the Pimmit School, there has been some vandalism. Residents are asked to keep an eye out and immediately report any suspicious activity on school property to the police.

A concerned resident has contacted VDOT regarding the problems with their recent paving job on Griffith Road. VDOT is aware of the poor quality of the job and have indicated that they will take steps to make the necessary repairs. This person let everyone know that problems with the roads in our neighborhood can be reported directly to Alan Wood, Area 9 Superintendent at VDOT, who can be reached at 207-7328.

The Association has a Sunshine Fund that is used to show support to members of our community who have lost a loved one, to honor the passing of long-time residents, and to assist residents facing catastrophes. Typically, the funds are used for cards, flowers, or donations. If you know of anyone who might be in need of some "sunshine," please contact Association President, Keith Allison at 356-9632.

The Pimmit Hills Community Phone Directory is almost ready. Please note that if you have moved into the neighborhood within the last several years, we may not have a correct listing for you. Contact Association Treasurer, Danny

Note to all readers from Anita VanRoekel:

I will no longer be taking calls regarding The Dispatch. After seven years of doing The Pimmit Hills Dispatch every month, I am passing the baton on to Cindy Kwitchoff.

Danny and I may be retiring next year and may not be staying in the area. I know that you will give Cindy all the help and support that you gave me. I have enjoyed doing the paper and will miss it.

Thank you,

Anita

Take the High Cost Out of Selling Your Home: The 6% bite vs the 4.5% nibble

When it comes time to sell your home, you'll want to get as much as you can for it in the shortest amount of time. Now there's Fox Hunt Realty. We offer professional services at a reasonable fee.

Our sales commission is just a nibble: An easy-to-swallow 4.5%! That's a savings of $2,250 on a $150,000 home. We have an extensive network of potential buyers through the Multiple Listing Service (MLS).

There you have it. The 6% bite or the 4.5% nibble. Remember the Fox Hunt Realty name. You'll be seeing a lot more of us.

Long time Pimmit Hills resident is remembered

Shirley Johanna Barnes, one of the first residents of Pimmit Hills, passed away on July 3 of this year.

Shirley was born on April 29, 1928 in Pleasantville, New Jersey. She grew up on the beaches of Atlantic City until her family moved to Washington, DC when she was nine. Shirley graduated from Central High School in DC and focused her artistic talents at Columbia Technical Institute. There, she met her husband John Barnes (Jack) of fifty-two years.

Shirley and Jack were among the first residents of Pimmit Hills in the early 1950s, and they raised their four children here, Jan, Christine, Jacqueline and Thomas. Shirley mothered many more: as the "neighborhood mom" who ran daily summer morning activities for the children of the block, a school crossing guard for Fairfax County police in Pimmit Hills, a secretary for Lemon Road Elementary School, president of the Marshall PTA, Den Mother, parent supporter in all of her children's sports activities, and lastly, teaching Sunday School.

As an artist, Shirley actively demonstrated her talents in painting, drawing and needlework. Being a community and political activist, she agreed to volunteer whenever asked. Shirley served as the secretary of the Pimmit Hills Citizens Association and also volunteered at the Pimmit Hills Senior Center. She was very involved in politics, would have meetings at her house, and you could always see her at the school on election day.

Shirley was a leader. Always having a wonderful sense of humor, she displayed a caring nature for all mankind. She will be missed in our community. ☪

Pimmit Hills Resident Publishes First Novel

Diana Lee Johnson of Gilson Street and a Pimmit Hills resident for 44 years, recently had her first novel published, entitled Too Late for Tomorrow.

"If dreams ever do come true, this is one for me," Diana said.

She has finished six other manuscripts, but this novel is the first to find a publisher. Diana has had several book signing engagements in the area and she and her book were featured in an article in the Alexandria Gazette.

The article stated that her novel is about the Hamiltons, a Southern family that defies convention by not only freeing slaves, but by making a former slave a business partner in the family's business.

Their beliefs put them at odds with popular sentiment, as they deal with local raids and Union army forces. But they persevere in their dreams and determination and eventually emerge triumphant.

"History is my passion, but historical accuracy was my commitment," Diana said of the making of her novel. She is very interested in Southern history, especially the Civil War.

Diana moved to Pimmit Hills with her family when she was seven years old. She grew up on Hileman Road, and in 1970, she and her first husband (now deceased) bought her present house on Gilson Street. She and later her daughter attended Lemon Road Elementary and Marshall High School.

For 32 years, Diana has worked in municipal purchasing, but she has always loved to write. Now that her children are grown, she is pursuing her dream to work on her novels.

For those interested, you can find Diana Lee Johnson's book, Too Late for Tomorrow, at book stores, Amazon.com or barnesandnoble.com. Congratulations on realizing your dream Diana! ☺

Heard on the Grapevine

By Donnie Dick

I had intended to write a year-end wrap-up in my last column of the past year. Due to a mix-up on my part, the last issue of The Dispatch comes out before our last Association meeting. So I will include a few observations in my first article of the new year 1999-2000. Wow, it was a fast and hot summer!

I wanted to report that Irv Poole, past president of the Association, took an active role in opposing the Evans Farm plan put forward by a group in McLean to save the property for a park. I believe the Citizens Association had no objection to the development proposed by the West*Group. The Board of Supervisors voted against the park plan and it now appears that the property will be developed along the lines set out by the West*Group. Some pretty expensive townhomes and residential units will replace much of the "open space" at that location.

If you haven't been by the Pimmit Hills Adult Education Center on Lisle Avenue lately, the renovation project is well underway and quite a mess at this time. The Senior Center is almost completely finished and is back in business. You seniors out there should stop in for a look and maybe take advantage of some of their programs and the new facility. Parking will still be a problem, so you should consider an exercise walk to the Center and get in shape for some of the activities offered. The Center is a warm and neighborly place staffed by a helpful and friendly staff. Your suggestions and comments are always welcome on how to improve the Center's programs.

A letter in the June Dispatch from one of our neighbors expressed some views that should be taken to heart and a new outlook for the Pimmit Hills Citizens Association should be high on the Association's agenda this year. We need to be more in tune with our community, its people and our common interests. It is a two-way street. The Association needs com-
